

JEWEL ISAAC

Seth Church

FOUNDER & MANAGING MEMBER

OVERVIEW

Seth Church is the founder and managing member of Jewel Isaac, LLC, the Fairbanks-based general contractor he established in 2016 and has grown into a statewide commercial, government, industrial, and energy builder. He directs the company's strategy, business development, and client relationships, serving owners and national brands including Safeway, Fred Meyer, and Costco. Seth brings two decades of Alaska and Bakken construction ownership across general contracting and hydro-excavation, and serves the state as a Regent of the University of Alaska.

EXPERIENCE

Founder & Managing Member, Jewel Isaac, LLC

2016 - present

Established and leads the statewide general contractor, directing strategy, business development, and client relationships, and serving owners and national brands including Safeway, Fred Meyer, and Costco.

Co-Founder & Owner, C Company

2002 - 2016

Built and sold homes and grew a general contracting business to more than 30 employees, expanding into multiple industries.

Co-Founder & Owner, C Company GC (Williston, ND)

2011 - 2016

Supported the Bakken oil & gas industry and grew the firm into one of North Dakota's largest hydro-excavation contractors.

Co-Founder & Owner, Vision Construction International

2010 - 2014

Partnered with a service-disabled veteran to build a successful SDVOSB securing government and private contracts.

LEADERSHIP & SERVICE

- Regent, University of Alaska - appointed by the Governor to help oversee the statewide university system.
- Two decades of construction ownership across Alaska and the Bakken in general contracting and hydro-excavation.